KEV NICHOLS

Kev Nichols, born and raised in the vibrant city of Philadelphia, stands out as a dynamic force in the music and nightlife industry. Boasting a diverse background that spans both corporate and nightlife settings, Kev Nichols has emerged as a premier young talent with weekly residencies that span as far as Barstool in Philadelphia, HQ2 in Atlantic City, and Penn State University with notable destination travel sets in locations such as Costa Rica, Tampa, Michigan, and in his very own hometown at the Xfinity Live Mobile Arena. His performances are characterized by high energy, crowd engagement, and a keen marketing acumen that sets him apart. Beyond his prowess as a DJ, Kev Nichols possesses a unique skill set that includes graphic design, music production, marketing expertise, and event planning, contributing to his multifaceted success averaging over 650K views per month on Instagram. He has become a sought-after name, gracing the hottest spots in Philadelphia and along the East Coast providing artist support for artists such as Joel Corry, Bobby Shmurda, and Mike Stud as well as thrown events for Philadelphia Eagles legend Brandon Graham, Cooper Dejean, Eddie Alvarez, and Terrell Owens. Under his media brand Club 215, Kev Nichols has reached remarkable heights, throwing some of the largest parties in the city of Philadelphia catching the attention of notable figures like Jason Kelce, Brandon Graham, and Conor McGregor. His achievements extend to securing long-term partnerships and collaborations with Connor and Forged Irish Stout in Dublin, solidifying his position as a rising star with a promising career ahead.
